A Piece of History Restored – Ribbon Cutting for the Restored US Grant Hotel

Supervisor Greg Cox will be attending the official ribbon cutting ceremony for the newly restored US Grant Hotel. This 96 year old hotel has become a historic landmark in downtown San Diego, one that helped shape downtown growth around its presence. Because the US Grant hotel so embodies the character of San Diego, Supervisor Cox will be presenting the Hotel and the Kumeyaay Nation with a special County Proclamation, recognizing the hotel for the significant impact it has had on the history of downtown.

WHEN: Tuesday, October 17, 2006

WHERE: 326 Broadway

San Diego, CA 92101

*Ribbon cutting to take place on the Third Avenue Side, between

Broadway and C Street

Celebrate the Journey – 20th Anniversary for the Commission on Children, Youth and Families

Supervisor Greg Cox will be attending the 20th anniversary celebration for the Commission on Children, Youth and Families. This San Diego County commission was formed in 1986 to assist in identifying and addressing the needs of children, youth and families that are currently at-risk or under the care of the County. It serves as an information resource for the County Board of Supervisors. The Supervisor will open the event with remarks on the history of the commission and its impact on our community.

WHEN: Thursday, October 19, 2006

WHERE: The Ray and Joan Kroc Community Center

6845 University Avenue

San Diego, CA
